People

Blessed be the God of our salvation:

THE REMEMBRANCE OF NAMES

Bishop

Let us pray.

Eternal Lord God, you hold all souls in life: Give to your whole Church in paradise and on earth your light and your peace; and grant that we, following the good examples of those who have served you here and are now at rest, may at the last enter with them into your unending joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People

Amen.

The Bishop invites the Remembrance of Names at this time in these or similar words

Let us name before God all those who have died in this time of pandemic.

The Readers read the names submitted. They are found at the end of this booklet.

Afterwards, the Bishop continues

I invite any additional names to be offered at this time, aloud where you are or online in the comments.

Silence is kept

The service continues with these prayers

Almighty God, our Father in heaven, before whom live all who die in the Lord: Receive our sisters and brothers into the courts of your heavenly dwelling place. Let their hearts and souls now ring out in joy to you, O Lord, the living God, and the God of those who live. This we ask through Christ our Lord.

People

Amen.

Most merciful God, whose wisdom is beyond our understanding, deal graciously with all of your people in their grief. Surround them with your love, that they may not be overwhelmed by their loss, but have confidence in your goodness, and strength to meet the days to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People

Amen.

TRISAGION

Sung three times

The image shows a musical score for the Trisagion hymn. It consists of two systems of staves. The first system has a treble clef and a bass clef. The lyrics are: "Ho - ly God, Ho - ly and Might - y,". The second system also has a treble clef and a bass clef. The lyrics are: "Ho - ly Im - mor - tal One, Have mer - cy up - on us." The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C).

People
Bishop

God be with you

And also with you.

Let us pray.

Most gracious God, whose servant James Theodore Holly labored to build a church in which all might be free: Grant that we might overcome our prejudice, and honor those whom you call from every family, language, people, and nation; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People

Amen.

THE FIRST READING

Deuteronomy 6:20-25

Reader

A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy.

Moses said, “When your children ask you in time to come, ‘What is the meaning of the decrees and the statutes and the ordinances that the Lord our God has commanded you?’ then you shall say to your children, ‘We were Pharaoh’s slaves in Egypt, but the Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. The Lord displayed before our eyes great and awesome signs and wonders against Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his household. He brought us out from there in order to bring us in, to give us the land that he promised on oath to our ancestors. Then the Lord commanded us to observe all these statutes, to fear the Lord our God, for our lasting good, so as to keep us alive, as is now the case. If we diligently observe this entire commandment before the Lord our God, as he has commanded us, we will be in the right.’ ”

Reader

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People

Thanks be to God.

THE PSALM

Psalm 86:11–17

- 11 Teach me your way, O Lord, and I will walk in your truth; *
 knit my heart to you that I may fear your Name.
- 12 I will thank you, O Lord my God, with all my heart, *
 and glorify your Name for evermore.
- 13 For great is your love toward me; *
 you have delivered me from the nethermost Pit.
- 14 The arrogant rise up against me, O God,
and a band of violent men seeks my life; *
 they have not set you before their eyes.

- 15 But you, O Lord, are gracious and full of compassion, *
 slow to anger, and full of kindness and truth.
- 16 Turn to me and have mercy upon me; *
 give your strength to your servant;
 and save the child of your handmaid.
- 17 Show me a sign of your favor,
 so that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed; *
 because you, O Lord, have helped me and comforted me.

THE GOSPEL

John 4:31–38

Deacon

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to John.

People

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon

The disciples were urging Jesus, “Rabbi, eat something.” But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.” So the disciples said to one another, “Surely no one has brought him something to eat?” Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work. Do you not say, ‘Four months more, then comes the harvest?’ But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting. The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, ‘One sows and another reaps.’ I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.”

Deacon

The Gospel of the Lord.

People

Praise to you, Lord Christ.
