

Make a “Melt the ICE” resistance hat

MON, FEB 23 | 6-8 PM
St. George's Episcopal Church
550 Ridgewood Rd, Maplewood

Led by an experienced crocheter and an experienced knitter, this event is for knitters and crocheters who are comfortable with the basics of their craft and want to get started making the red “Melt the ICE” resistance hat.

Come join us to work alongside like-minded crafters, with guidance available if you get stuck.

Attendance is limited to 35. This event is free, but attendees must bring their own materials (pattern, yarn, needles/hook, stitch markers).

Pre-registration is required by 5 PM Friday, Feb. 20.

Learning to knit or crochet takes time and practice;
teaching those skills is outside the scope of this event.
